When officers arrived on the scene they learned the altercation was over a parking space. The victim reported a van was blocking his assigned parking space when he returned home. He asked the driver to move the van. The suspect backed up the van, almost struck the victim's vehicle, and continued to block his parking space.

As the victim approached the suspect, who was seated in the driver seat, the suspect pulled out a knife and threatened him. The suspect never exited the van and no one was injured.

Officers located the knife in the van and arrested 58-year-old Royal Oak resident, Robert Rovinsky, for Felonious Assault. Rovinsky has no prior criminal history.

On August 2, 2016, Rovinsky was arraigned before Magistrate Chisholm in the 44th District Court. He was charged with one (1) count of Assault with a Dangerous Weapon, $10,000 personal bond.
